CLEBC PROGRAM LAWYER

Catherine J. Branch
cbranch@cle.bc.ca

WHO SHOULD ATTEND: Lawyers practicing in the area of professional regulation including those that act for professionals before their governing body and those acting on behalf of professional regulatory bodies; the course will also be of interest to registrars, members of complaint, hearing, and discipline committees, investigation officers, and other staff members of self-governing bodies.

LEARNING LEVEL: Intermediate/Advanced

In matters regarding self-governing professions, the practices, procedures, and rules are all unique and ever-changing. Protecting the public interest and maintaining the profession's integrity and credibility must be balanced with the individual's interest in his or her livelihood, reputation, and ability to practice effectively. Find out about the latest developments in this one-day course focused on some of the most critical and complex issues facing self-regulating bodies.

Law Society of BC CPD Hours: 6 HOURS (a minimum of 1 HOUR will involve aspects of professional responsibility and ethics, client care and relations, and/or practice management).
